

Who we are

Shonubi, Musoke & Company Advocates is a market leading, dynamic law firm. We transform ideas and knowledge into outcomes that count for our clients, our people and our community.

We deliver first-rate thinking and work with our clients to create collectively inventive solutions and generate opportunities. We think outside of the traditional ways of working to achieve the right commercial outcomes and add value to our clients and our people. Attuned to what matters most, we are always actively on our clients' side, championing their business, seeing things from their perspective and thinking about every way we can help them to succeed.

We know that we have been good at what we do for the last thirty (30) years and we continue to focus on this. This expertise, passion and focus makes us who we are.

Founded in 1987, our solid history is an important part of who we are today and the foundation for our future.
